Young, Black and Tackling Inequalities

MENTER, Peterborough Racial Equality Council (PREC) and Bedford African Community Support Project (BACSP) as part of the MENTER Empowerment through Participation Partnership are pleased to invite you to this launch event!

Wednesday 24th March 2010, The Møller Centre, Storey's Way, Cambridge

The event will explore and provide delegates with an opportunity to learn about: MENTERs consultation with young people, Children's Trusts, Youth Led Participation, Race Equality, Positive Parenting and Education to launch MENTERs youth project (this project is developing specific initiatives that inspire BME children and young people to aspire and achieve). The event will feature:

Momodou Sallah & Carlton Howson

Authors of "Working with Black Young People" & "Europes Established and Emerging Immigrant Communities: assimilation, multiculturalism or integration"

Delia Modeste

Young Leaders Academy pioneer, national REACH project manager

Maheub Ladha

Director of Peterborough Racial Equality Council

The workshops will include a meeting and the opportunity to learn about:

1. MENTER Youth Project, A Black Youth Perspective, Chris Shangalume (BACSP) & Pauline Stepney (MENTER)
2. Education and youth led projects with Carlton Howson & Simeon Ferguson (MENTER)
3. Empowering and Nurturing Parents, to become positive parents to their children, with Allan Johnson-Mwangi (LYLA)
4. Youth Taking Action on Inequalities, with Yasmeen Maqbool (Peterborough Racial Equality Council) & Jabeen Maqbool (Step Up)
5. National Children's Bureaus Speak In programme, Childrens Trusts working with BME organizations meeting with Kevin Garrod (CME), Anna Burgess (MENTER) and Emma Foxall (NCB)

Young, Black and Tackling Inequalities

Who should attend? The event is designed to appeal to children's trusts, schools, youth services and those in the BME Voluntary and Community sector who work with children and young people and their families. The event is free, and there are a limited number of travel bursaries.
